WHAT THE APPLICANT WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR

Every Intern that we enlist will be taught how to lead a small group of 10-20 students as well as taught specific duties while at camp as part of a crew. We will also have leaders from around the country teach our staff throughout the summer on biblically based youth ministry.

Small Group Leader:

As a small group leader Interns will be responsible for leading their small group of students in a short 15-20 minute bible study from material that we supply. They would also be responsible for engaging the students in conversation about the material and sermons and be there to minister to the students, but any in depth counseling will be directed to the youth leader and adult chaperones. This person would also have to help lead students in games, both physical and mental. and be a source of energy and leadership for their small group.

*Do you feel that the applicant is capable of these duties, If NOT please explain?
